WEDNESDAY, MAY 11. 1737.

No 585-

Yesterday arrived a Mail from Holland.

THE Senate of Venice has received Letters from their Ambassador at Constantinople, dated the 1st and 4th of April, O. S. with the following Particulars.

In the Audience which the English and Dutch Ambassadors had of the Grand Seignior before they set out for the Ottoman Empire, the English Ambassador, in his Speech, That his Britannick Majesty's Mediation with the more Pleasure, because the Situation of the Ottoman Empire rendered a Peace necessary for it. The Ambassador of Holland, observing that the Ottoman Pride cannot bear the Mortification, took Care to make no mention in Speech of the Necessity of a Peace. And this being remark'd, the Kaimakan made Answer in the Name of the Grand Seignior, That his Majesty accepted the Mediation of the Maritime Powers with a Regard to their Friendship, and not from any Necessity of clapping up a Peace, because he was able enough to carry on a War against his Enemies. When the Audience was over, the English Ambassador was presented with a Fur of Sable Marten, and the Dutch Ambassador with a very fine one of Ermin.

It seems that a great Number of Papers have been sent in Constantinople, threatening to depose the Grand Seignior, and to put his Ministers to Death, they consent to the Resignation or Demolition of the City; and the Populace mouth so loudly for War, that the Multi and Doctors of the Law join in the

According to Letters from Dresden, they are apprehensive that the Death of the Duke of Courland, will be attended with great Commotions, either on Part of the Republick of Poland, which will be oblig'd to plead its ancient Rights to Courland, or on Part of the States of the Country, who will demand the Liberty of chusing their own Duke. They doubt not that the Interests of Count Maurice of Saxe will be strongly supported upon this Occasion. His Noblemen was upon his Return to Paris, but has deferred his Journey.

The Letters from Italy bring very little material. The Cardinal Ottoboni, who is at his Bishoprick of Avignon, situate at the Mouth of the Tyber, has invited the Chevalier de St. George to come to take the Pleasure of Hunting and Fishing with him, and has accordingly resolv'd to go thither in a few Days with his second Son, call'd Duke of York. The Chevalier's eldest Son, whom he styles Prince of Wales, had an Audience of the Pope on the 11th ult. for near an Hour. 'Tis thought he then took leave of him, and had his Blessing for his intended Journey to foreign Parts, for which 'tis said he was to set out the Beginning of this Month.

The Master of a French Ship arriv'd at Leghorn in Smyrna, says, a terrible Earthquake, which lasted near two Minutes with such Violence, that the Fortresses, and almost half of the Town, had swallow'd up or overturn'd.

ANTY-SYPHILICON

THE only short and most infallible Cure in the Universe for the VENEREAL Disease from the slightest Infection to the most extreme and double Degree of it, even when the Blood and Juices are roughly contaminated with its malignant Virus, and the Bones are affected with it.

Fresh Infections, call'd CLAPS, with all their attendant Symptoms, tho' ever so severe, are entirely cured in a few Days, and so as effectually to prevent the Blood and Juices from being tainted with any remaining Virus on one Hand, or a venereal Gleet or Weakness on the other.

And the most inveterate Degree of the French Disease attended with Nocturnal Pains, universal Breaking and all the other most exasperated Symptoms, are overcome by it, and effectually and much more fastidiously than by Salivation, Inunction, or any other whatever, and in so easy and pleasant a Manner, without pairing Strength, or occasioning any Inconvenience, as to be the only apoplectic Remedy or true Antidote in the World; and this some Thousands of their great Joy experience'd.

It is pleasant to take, occasions no Sickness or Discomfort requires Confinement; but may be taken, and the cure accomplish'd, without the Knowledge of the Friend.

Those who suspect they have received an Injury by only a Dose or two of it, be perfectly freed from Apprehensions; for it suffers no lurking Venom to in the Body, but wholly extirpates it Root and Branch, a gentle, easy, and most effectual Manner.

All such likewise as doubt they have some remaining tincture of former Injuries, may by a few Doses of it entirely free themselves from all Suspicion of that Kind; for it does no Foulness, Corruption, or Putrefaction whatever, main in the Fluids, or to adhere to the Solids; and on Account, in all scorbutick, scrophulous, and even Eruptions or Foulnesses of the Skin, Glandulous Swellings and Impurities of the Juices, it does more by one than any other Medicine yet known can by ten.

The Price of this most Noble ANTY-SYPHILICON Six Shillings a Pot, which, considering its extraordinary efficacy, one Pot only being sufficient in most Cases to accomplish the Cure, is not a tenth Part of its Value; and pointed by the Author to be had only at Mr. RAY'S Toyshop, at the Rose and Crown against St. Clements Church-Yard in the Strand, ready scaled up with a Blue Instructions, by the Perusal of which, all Persons who ever affected with any Degree of the Venereal Disease perfectly understand their own Condition, and can know when, and when not, the Venereal Poison is rooted out of their Bodies.

Note, Ask only for a Six Shilling Pot for the Scurvy.

The Universal Family MEDICINE

Still more and more fam'd, after upwards of Ten Success with the Publick.
